

CERLAC's Youth Summer Program (27-31 July 2015)

Theme: Introduction to the Youth Summer Program

Session # 1: Monday, 27 July 2015

Objective: To introduce participants to the CERLAC - Youth Summer Program 2015.

TIME	ACTIVITY	RESPONSIBILITY	MATERIAL	OBSERVATION
8:30-9:00am	Breakfast and Registration	Coordinator , Facilitators and Volunteers	Bags, brochure, paper, pen, resource guide.	Venue: Room 519 (Kaneff Tower, KT)
9:00-9:15	Ice-breaker (Fac.)
9:15-10:15	WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION TO THE CERLAC'S YOUTH SUMMER PROGRAMME	Prof. Carlota McAllister, Director CERLAC Camila Bonifaz, Coord. CERLAC Abubacar Fofana Dir. Sum. Program Facilitators: Elio Ramirez, (Univ.of Toronto) Susana Gonzalez (Teach2Learn) Marika Mckoy-Smith (York U Alumni)	Screen, Projector, Power point	Group with its facilitator and volunteer  Venue: Room 519 (KT) Example: To explain mandate of CERLAC and its relation with the community near York U.
1h and 5min]	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ General introduction</li> <li>➤ Summer Program: Setting some ground rules</li> <li>➤ Working at Kaneff Tower: Setting some ground rules (collectively)</li> </ul>
10:15-10:30	Break	Facilitators & Volunteers	Snacks, water	Venue: Lobby - Room 519 (KT) Each subgroup with its facilitator
10:30-11:45	THEME I: Welcome to Latin America and the Caribbean! 1. Introduce youth to the basic concepts of the curriculum - (Identity, Colonization, Anti-Colonization, Imperialism, Anti-Imperialism, Migration, Slavery...etc)	Aruna Panday, PhD Cand. (Department of Anthropology, York U)  Facilitators & Volunteers	Screen, Projector, Power point, Posters,	Venue: Venue: Room 519 (Kaneff Tower)
11:40-1:00pm	Lunch, Music, Dance and Sport	Everybody Sport Coord.: Jeff Zavala (MES Cand, Fac. Environmental Studies, York U)	Food  Balls	Venue: Room 519 (KT) York U sport field Each group with its facilitator
1:00-1:50 [50mins]	WORKSHOP I: "The Poetry of Sport and the Sport of Poetry" (Group A)	TOUR I: "Welcome to CERLAC" (Group B)	Prof. Maria Figueredo (Depart of Languages, Literatures and Linguistics, York U) Camila Bonifaz, Coord. CERLAC	Screen, Projector, Power point, Posters,  TOURS
2:00-2:50 [50 mins]	TOUR I: "Welcome to CERLAC" (Group A)	WORKSHOP I: "The Poetry of Sport and the Sport of Poetry" (Group B)	Prof: Maria Figueredo (Depart of Languages, Literatures and Linguistics, York U) Camila Bonifaz, Coord. CERLAC	CERLAC – (KT, 8 th floor) Each group led by the facilitator and volunteer
2:50-3:00	Conclusion and Exit Pass (feedback)	Everybody	Evaluation. Prog of next day	Venue: Room 519 (KT) Each subgroup with its facilitator

CERLAC's Youth Summer Program (20-31 July 2015)
Theme: Introduction to Latin American and the Caribbean Regions.

Session # 2: Tuesday, 28 July 2015

Objective: To introduce participants to the Latin American and the Caribbean Regions (General Introduction)

TIME	ACTIVITY	RESPONSIBILITY	MATERIAL	OBSERVATION
8:30-9:00	Breakfast	Director, Facilitators and Volunteers	Food	Venue: Room 519 (KT)
9:15-10:20am  [1h and 5min]	THEME II: LATIN AMERICA 1. Introduce youth to Latin American Region  All groups together: ➤ Simple introduction to maps ➤ Broad, general chronology/themes of Latin American Studies	Nicolas Lopez (York U Alumni-Political Science and Griffin Centre)  Facilitators & Volunteers	Maps. Power point Easel with paper, markers	Venue: Room 519 (KT) Example: Discussion in the four small groups with as much participation as possible, led by each group's facilitators and volunteers .
10:20-10:30	Break	Facilitators & Volunteers	Snacks, water	Venue: Venue: Room 519 )KT) Each subgroup with its facilitator
10:30-11:35  [1h and 5min]	THEME III: THE CARIBBEAN 1. Introduce youth to the Caribbean  All groups together: ➤ Simple introduction to maps ➤ Broad, general chronology/themes of the Caribbean Studies	Abubacar Fofana Leon, PhD Cand. (Depart. of History, York U)  Facilitators & Volunteers	Maps Screen, Projector, Power point	Venue: Room 519 (KT) Example: Discussion in the four small groups with as much participation as possible, led by each group's facilitators and volunteers
11:40-1:00pm	Lunch, Music, Dance and Sport	Everybody Sport Coord.: Jeff Zavala (MES Cand, Faculty Environmental Studies, York U)	Food	Venue: Room 519 (KT) Each group with its facilitator. York U, Sport field
1:00-2:50  [1h and 50 min]	WORKSHOP I: "Offstage: Performance and Identity in the Americas" ➤ Introduce youth to the discussion of 'performance' of politics & identity in public space through rallies, protests, processions, sport, choreography, and the social performance of the self.	Zoë Heyn-Jones , PhD Cand., Visual Arts, York U) Manolo Lugo, Artist & Member of Latin American-Canadian Art Projects (LACAP)  Facilitators & Volunteers	Maps Screen, Projector, Power point	Venue: Room 519 (KT)
2:45-3:00	Conclusion and Exit Pass (feedback)	Facilitators	Evaluation Program of the next day.	Venue: Room 519, KT Each group led by the facilitator and volunteer

Programa elaborado por: Abubacar Fofana León, Departamento de Historia, York University & Director Summer Program. 2015

CERLAC's - Youth Summer Program (20-31 July 2015)

Theme: Indigenous Cultures of the Americas

Session # 3: Wednesday, 29 July 2015

Objective: To introduce participants to the Indigenous Cultures of the Americas through the ceramic collections of the Gardiner Museum

TIME	ACTIVITY	RESPONSIBILITY	MATERIAL	OBSERVATION
8:30-9:00	Breakfast	Facilitators and Volunteers	Food	Venue: ... York University.
9:00 – 10:00 [1 h]	Travel to the Gardiner Museum (TTC)	Abubacar Fofana Leon, Dir. Summer Program Facilitators, Parents and Volunteers	Tokens Student Passes	TTC (tokens)
10:00-10:30	THEME IV: Indigenous Cultures of the Americas. ➤ Introduce youth to the early societies of the Americas through the study of the ceramics from Mexico, Central and South America. ➤ Gallery Tour – Gardiner Museum	Julia Matamoros, Education Department, Gardiner Museum of Ce- ramic art	Ceramics	Venue: Gallery “Early Societies of the Americas” Gardiner Museum.
10:30 - 10:40	Break & Snack	Facilitators	Snacks, water	Each subgroup with its facilitator
10:40 12:00pm	WORKSHOP II: Clay Workshop ➤ The students will be creating small figures out of clay, based on their tour the gallery “Early Societies of the Americas”	Julia Matamoros, Education Department, Gardiner Museum of Ce- ramic art	Clay	Venue: Clay Studio, Gardiner Museum
12:10- 1:00pm	Lunch	Everybody	Brown Bag Lunch	Brown Bag Lunch Room, Royal Ontario Museum (ROM)
1:00-2:30 [50min]	Indigenous Cultures of the Americas and their environment. ➤ 1:50 – 2:00 Orientation – Scavenger Hunt ➤ 2:00 – 2:30 – Scavenger Hunt “	Prof. Felipe Montoya (Faculty of Environmental Studies, York U)	Easel with paper, markers. Notebooks	Venue: Brown Bag Lunch Room, Royal Ontario Museum.
2:30-3:30	Visit to the Art Exhibit: ¡Viva México! Clothing and Culture. ➤ Introduce you to the history of Mexico through textiles and fashion.	Prof. Anne Rubenstein (Depart. History, York University)	Notebooks	Venue: Patricia Harris Gallery of Textiles & Costume, ROM (4 th floor). ➤ Self-Guided Visit
3:30	End of session: Evaluation of day’s activities Back to York University	Facilitators, Volunteers, Students	Evaluation Program of the next day.	Venue: ROM
3:30 – 4:00	Travel back to York University	Everybody	Tokens, S.Passes Student Passes	TTC

Programa elaborado por: Abubacar Fofana León, Departamento de Historia, York University & Director Summer Program. 2015

The CERLAC - Youth Summer Program (20-31 July 2015)
Theme: Colonization and Resistance in the Caribbean and Latin America

Session # 4: Thursday, 30 July 2015

Objective: To introduce participants to the historical processes of colonization and resistance in the Caribbean and Latin America. Case Studies.

TIME	ACTIVITY	RESPONSIBILITY	MATERIAL	OBSERVATION
8:30-9:15	Breakfast	Coordinator , Facilitators and Volunteers	Food	Breakfast: Archives of Ontario
9:15-10:20 [1h and 5 mins]	THEME V: Canto a America	Rosy Cervantes (Singer)	Screen, Projector, Power point	Venue: Room 519 (KT) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ Individual work but facilitators available for consultation: each student will work with his/her resource guide/course kit</li> <li>➤ Assignments for each group/grade level</li> </ul>
10:15:10:30	Break	Everybody	Snacks, water	Archives of Ontario
10:30-11:45 [1h and 15 min]	THEME V: Women in the Mexican Revolution. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ Introduce youth to the Mexican Revolution through the analysis of the role of women.</li> <li>➤ The students will write new verses to a Corrido.</li> </ul>	Prof. Anne Rubenstein (Depart. History, York University)	Screen, Projector, Power point	Venue: Room 519 (KT) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ Individual work but facilitators available for consultation: each student will work with his/her resource guide/course kit</li> <li>➤ Assignments for each group/grade level</li> </ul>
11:45-1:00	Lunch, Music, Dance and Sport	Everybody Sport Coord.: Jeff Zavala (MES Cand, Faculty Environmental Studies, York U)	Food Balls	Venue: Room 519 (KT) Each group with its facilitator. York U, Sportfield
1:00-2:00	WORKSHOP III: Indigenous Resurgence Through an Amazonian Festival	Katherine McDonald, PhD Cand, Depart of Geography, York U)	Screen, Projector, Power point	Venue: Room 519 (KT) & York U sport field
2:15-3:15	WORKSHOP IV: Capoeira	Helio Souza & Capoeira Angola		Sportfield
2:45-3:00	End of session: Evaluation of day's activities	Facilitators, Volunteers, Students	Evaluation Program of the next day.	Venue: York U sport field

Programa elaborado por: Abubacar Fofana León, Departamento de Historia, York University & Director Summer Program. 2015

CERLAC's Youth Summer Program (20-31 July 2015)

Theme: Latin@ Youth in Canada: Race, Identity, Education and Gender Relations

Session # 5: Friday, 31 July 2015

Objective: To introduce participants to the diasporic experiences of youth in the Americas: Gender, Migration, Refugee and Citizenship in Latin America and its Diasporas.

TIME	ACTIVITY	RESPONSIBILITY	MATERIAL	OBSERVATION
8:30-9:00	Breakfast	Coordinator , Facilitators and Volunteers	Food	Breakfast
9:15-10:20  [1h and 5 min]	WORKSHOP II : Latin@ Youth in the Americas: Identity, Ethnicity and Education	Prof. Miguel Gonzalez (Depart. of Social Sciences, Faculty of LA & PS)  Facilitators & Volunteers	Screen, Projector, Power point	Venue: Room 519 (KT) Example: Discussion in the four small groups with as much participation as possible, led by each group's facilitators and volunteers
10:20-10:30	Break	Everybody	Snacks, water	- Each subgroup with its facilitator
10:30 11: 45  [1h& 15 mins]  [30 mins]	WORKSHOP III: A question of lacking access or diversifying action? The Civic and Political Engagement of Latin American Newcomers in Toronto: The role of youth	Coord. Adriana Salazar (Community Engagement Coordinator, Mennonite New Life Centre of Toronto)  Facilitators & Volunteers	Power point, Screen, projector, Easel with paper, markers	Venue: Room 519 (KT) Example: Discussion in the four small groups with as much participation as possible, led by each group's facilitators and volunteers Example: Discussion guide for film to be included in the resource guide
11:45-1:00	Lunch &amp; Sports	Everybody Sport Coord.: Jeff Zavala (MES Cand, Faculty Environmental Studies, York U)	Balls	Venue: Room 519 (KT) Venue: York University sport field
1:00-3:00	FINAL/CLOSING SESSION: ➤ Theatrical production using at least one of the other themes from previous days' activities ➤ Spoken Word, Poetry, Visual Arts. ➤ Special prizes [per group?] Certificates	Students Facilitators Professors Community Members Families	Power point, Screen, projector, Easel with paper, markers	Venue: Room 519 (KT)
2:45-3:00	End of session: Evaluation of day's activities	Facilitators, Volunteers, Students	Evaluation Program of the next day.	Venue: Room 519 (KT)
3:30pm	Evaluation of the CERLAC's Youth Summer Program +Party	Everybody (staff)	Cake and cookies	Venue: Room 519 (KT)

Programa elaborado por: Abubacar Fofana León, Departamento de Historia, York University & Director Summer Program. 2015